2004

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Ministry of Community, Aboriginal and Women's Services

The Guide to Aboriginal Organizations and Services in British Columbia is a provincial resource listing of community-based services and organizations. The Guide is also a means by which other service organizations, government ministries and agencies, and the general public may become knowledgeable about specific Aboriginal services and organizations. Publication of this Guide is coordinated by the Aboriginal Directorate in support of Aboriginal people and their communities. This publication is based on the most current data available at the time of printing.

This Guide is not meant to be a comprehensive listing of all Aboriginal organizations in British Columbia, nor is it intended to offer links to all of the services that may be of interest to Aboriginal people. For the most part, the organizations listed in the Guide are Aboriginal-controlled and generally operate on a not-for-profit basis. Participation in the Guide is voluntary.

An Electronic version of this publication is available on the Ministry of Community, Aboriginal and Women's Services website at the following address: http://www.gov.bc.ca/mcaws

To request that an organization to be added to the Guide, or to update contact information, please send the details to:
